My life has been a very queer one, and if I do say it myself an exciting one. I have been everywhere and without being foolhardy or reckless in anything have come into more than my share of danger. It began before I was fifteen, for I had already entered the Army. I have a medal of honor for bravery at Chancellorsville, and a noted officer said in his report that the act was one of the bravest of the war. At Gettysburg, I received another medal. This was for serving a gun alone when all the rest of the men were killed or wounded. My captain, in a letter to me, by the way, said that the state of New York has erected a monument upon that very spot, on the left of Pickett's charge about twenty-five feet from where their right rested. I was made a Second Lt.; but the fact is, I was only as big as a pint of cider. There were several other episodes of similar sort during the war, but I was so confoundedly young I did not get my just desserts . . . MORE.

Isaac (Adam?, Jacob, Victor, Johannes)

Isaac Putman was born about 1775 and may have been a son of Adam Putman.

According to the family sketch of John Putman of Litchfield, NY, in History of Herkimer County, NY, Isaac Putman the father of Jacob and grandfather of Isaac was an early settler at "Mohawk."

Jacob Isaacs Putman lived next door to Henry Putman the son of Solomon in Litchfield, Herkimer Co., NY, in the 1830 NY Census. It would seem since they lived close to one another that they may have been closely related. I have Jacob Isaac Putman as the first cousin of Henry Solomonse Putman both grandchildren of Adam Putman.

Isaac's offspring are somewhat hard to trace, but it is believed that the Putman's of the early 1800s with the middle initial "I." belonged to him although only Jacob Putman is certain as a son of Isaac.

Children:

1. Jacob. Jacob Putman was born about 1793 in NY. According to History of Herkimer County, NY, Jacob settled a farm of 200 in Litchfield, Herkimer Co., NY, in 1837. He came to Litchfield from a farm near Cedarville, where he was one of the first settlers. Jacob was drafted into the army in the War of 1812 and was stationed at Sacket's Harbor. He was one of the first soldiers who drew 160 acres. Jacob Putman married a Mary.

Jacob left a will that was probated January 7, 1867. Jacob signed his will August 20, 1859, when he was 67 years of age. He died November 31, 1866, in the Town of Litchfield.

Children:

1. Harvey.
2. James. James was born in 1828.
3. Elizabeth.
4. John. John was born June 24, 1834 or 1837. According to History of Herkimer County, NY, John was a farmer in Litchfield where he inherited 200 acres from his father Jacob. John married Ada J. a daughter of Daniel Wilcox of Litchfield.

5. Fanny.

6. De Ette. De Ette was born in 1836.

7. Ellen. She was born in 1841.

Solomon (Adam, Jacob, Victor, Johannes)

Solomon, or Salomo, Putman was born October 20, 1778, and was baptized at the Dutch Reformed Church of Albany.

He married a Margaretha who was probably a Walrath.

They lived in the Town of Litchfield, Herkimer Co., New York, where Solomon Putman was listed in the 1830 and 1830 NY Census.

In the 1855 New York State Census in Jefferson Co., Margaretha the mother of Isaac Putman was listed at the age 75. This would place her birth year as 1780. According to the same census, she was born in Herkimer Co., New York, and was a resident of Jefferson Co. since 1837. In the 1860 New York Census, Margaret Putman is listed as 82 years old and was in the household of her son Henry Putman.

Children:

1. Benjamin. He was born June 15, 1801, in Herkimer Co., New York, and was baptized July 8, 1804, at St. Paul's Lutheran Church of Minden (or Fort Plain). His sponsors were Adam Walrath and his wife Elizabeth. Benjamin died of Typhoid Fever 1 June 1864 in New York.

2. Henry. According to the 1855 New York State Census, Henry was born in Herkimer Co., New York, in 1802. He probably married first Elizabeth Emhuff (Emhough), who was born in 1805, and second a Sarah. Henry lived in Litchfield, Herkimer Co. but later removed to Theresa, Jefferson Co., NY. Elizabeth died about 1863 in Theresa. Henry married second a Sarah who was born in 1810 in NY. They removed to Sparta, WI, where Henry died October 2, 1869.

Children:

1. David. He was born in the Town of Litchfield, New York, in 1834.

2. Isaac Van Rensealer. He was born August 21, 1836, in Litchfield, NY, he probably married first Zilpha Cornwall, second Mary C. Dinger, and third Mary Bennet 28 July 1886. Isaac died 28 July 1886 in Sparta, WI. His obituary reads as follows:

Isaac V. Putman . . . was born in Herkimer Co., NY, in 1836, coming west in 1866. He lived in Neillsville for a time finally coming to Sparta and locating in Beaver Creek where his home had been up to a short time ago, when he sold his farm and went to Chippewa Falls. He returned last October, and has lived in the city since. He was a veteran of the Civil War, enlisting in Co. F, 10th New York Artillery, in August 1862, and was honorably discharged at Petersburg, VA, June 6, '65. He was married July 28, '86, to Mary C. Bennett, who survives him, and also one daughter, Mrs. Nora E. Neuman. Three brothers are also living, Jerome Putman; New York, John, Humbird, WI; and William of Chippewa Falls, WI; and a sister, Lydia, New York. (28 February 1908)

4. Nelson. Nelson was christened 20 July 1817.

5. Solomon. Solomon was christened 6 June 1819.

Anna (Adam, Jacob, Victor, Johannes)

Anna Putman, or Anna Bodman, attended the Church at Warren, Herkimer Co., New York.

She married Abraham Menning.

Anna is a possible daughter of Adam and Catherine Putman.

Children:

1. Joannes. John was baptized May 21, 1806, in the Church at Warren the son of Abraham Menning and Anna Bodman. Witnesses were Leonard Ekler and wife Catherina.

Cornelia (Adam, Jacob, Victor, Johannes)

Cornelia Putman was possibly a daughter of Adam and Catherine Meyer Putman. Cornelia was born in 1790 and raised in Columbia, Herkimer Co., NY.

She married first Jacob Crawford and second Christian Burns about 1833.

Children [Crawford]:

1. Lorana. Married Russell Green.
2. John. Born in 1821 in New York.

Children [Burns]:

1. Benjamin. Born in 1835 in Angelica, New York.

JACOB (Adam, Jacob, Victor, Johannes)

Jacob Putman was baptized October 1791 at the Dutch Reformed Church of Caughnawaga the son of Adam Putman and Catherine Meyers.

Children:

1. Cathy. Catherine was baptized June 1, 1817, at the Dutch Reformed Church of Columbia.
2. Barbara. She was baptized June 28, 1818, at the Dutch Reformed Church of Columbia.

David (Adam, Jacob, Victor, Johannes)

David Putman was born reportedly in New York about 1783.

He had a son named Francis whose name is not a very common. There was a Loyalist Francis Putman who removed to Ontario, Canada, during the time of the American Revolutionary War and had property in Osnabrook, Ontario.

It is a guess that David is a son of Francis Putman's assumed brother Adam Putman.

David named his first son Adam, so David's father may have been Adam Putman of the Mohawk Valley, New York.

David was a ship's captain who sailed the lower Great Lakes. It is widely reported that David and his crew encountered a storm on Lake Erie and were ship wrecked near today's Welland Co., Ontario, Canada. It was here after being marooned that David met and married Dorothy Hainer. The story seems to imply that David was not at first a resident of the area before his ship wreck.

David Putman married Dorothy Hainer about 1806.

In 1811, David and Dorothy Putman had a son named Albert Putman. Dorothy Hainer's parents have been variously have been reported as Derrick, or Richard, Hainer and also Albert Hainer. Because Dorothy and David Putman did not have a son named Richard or Derrick, but they did have a son named Albert. Albert Hainer who was the son of Henry and Dorothy Hainer was likely Dorothy Hainer Putman's father. Richard Hainer also had a daughter Dorothy, but she married it appears a Mr. May and second a Mr. Gildes.

If David Putman and Dorothy Hainer used the Dutch naming practice in giving names to their children, David's father was an Adam, Dorothy's father was an Albert, David's grandfather was a John, Dorothy's grandfather was a Henry, and David's maternal grandfather was a Francis. This fits Adam Putman as the father of David Putman and Albert Hainer as the father of Dorothy Hainer.

Hannah died in March 1885.

Margaret (Jacobus, Arent, Victor, Johannes)

Margaret Putman was baptized November 11, 1781, at seven weeks of age at the Dutch Reformed Church of Caughnawaga. Her sponsors were Jacob and Maragret Snook.

Margaret may have married David Winne.

Lewis (Jacobus, Arent, Victor, Johannes)

Lewis perhaps also known as Lucas Putnam was born about 1783, and was likely the son of Jacobus Arentse Putman and Sarah Osterhoudt.

The name Jacobus is the Dutch form of the English given name James.

Lewis married Abigail who was born in 1793 in NY.

During the 1830-40 NY, Census, they lived in Brutus, Cayuga Co., NY.

Abigail is listed with her family in Victory, Cayuga Co., NY, in the 1850 Census. Lewis had died before that date.

The family in the 1860 WI Census was in Fayette, Lafayette Co., WI.

Children:

1. James. He was born in 1824 in Cayuga Co., NY.
2. Hester. Hester was born in 1827.
3. William. William was born in 1829.
4. Theron. He was born in 1833 in Cayuga Co., NY.

Arent (Jacobus, Arent, Victor, Johannes)

Arent Putman was born at Tribes Hill November 17, 1786, and baptized March 6, 1786, at the Dutch Reformed Church of Caughnawaga the son of Jacobus Putman and Sarah Osterhoudt.

Arent seems to have been the Aaron Putman who with his brother John J. Putman removed from Montgomery Co, NY, to Cato [Victory], Cayuga Co., NY, where he is listed in the 1820-30-40 Censuses.

The next door neighbor of Aaron Putman in the 1830 Victory, Cayuga Co., NY, Census, was Ephraim Hull who was born in Tribes Hill. It appears that Aaron was also from Tribes Hill, NY, which was first settled by Victor Pootman, Aaron's likely ancestor.

Aaron removed by 1850 to Dewitt, Onondaga Co., NY.

Children:

1. Lafayette. He married Melissa Philips.

Johannes (Jacobus, Arent, Victor, Johannes)

Johannes Putman the son of Jacobus Putman and Sarah Osterhoudt was born September 8, 1791, and baptized in October 1791 at the Dutch Reformed Church of Caughnawaga.

This John J. Putman may have been the one who married Eve Lepper on January 31, 1818. John may have removed with his brother Aaron Putman to Cato or Victory, Cayuga Co., NY, where he is listed in the 1820 and 1830 NY Census.

It appears that John removed before 1840 to Dewitt, Onondaga Co., NY.

Gerty (Jacobus, Arent, Victor, Johannes)

Gertrude Putman was baptized January 1, 1797, at the Dutch Reformed Church of Caughnawaga. One of her sponsors was Maria Fonda, wife of Francis Putman.

Magdalena (Victor, Arent, Victor, Johannes)

Magdalene was born May 21, 1774, and baptized June 4, 1774, at the Lutheran Trinity Church of Stone Arabia. Her sponsors were Nicholus and Barbara Walrath.

Magdalene married Nicholas B. Hanson May 27, 17??.

- 8. Margrietje. She was born December 18, 1807, and died young.
- 9. Harriet. Harriet was born September 18, 1809.
- 10. Magdalena. She was born February 13, 1812.
- 11. Victor Putnam. Victor was born February 20, 1814.
- 12. Ann. Ann was born June 25, 1816.
- 13. Margaret. Margaret was born October 5, 1820.

John (Victor, Arent, Victor, Johannes)

John V. Putman was born April 12, 1776.

John married first Catherine Hanson December 5, 1802 at the Dutch Reformed Church of Caughnawaga. Catrina was born in 1783.

They lived in Stone Arabia and Albany Bush, Montgomery Co., NY.

Catherine died February 13, 1844.

John married second Elizabeth Schultz. Elizabeth was born in 1797 in NY.

John Putman died January 28, 1862, or January 14, 1863.

Children:

1. Victor. Victor was born 22 May 1804 and baptized in 1804 at the Dutch Reformed Church of Caughnawaga. Victor lived in Johnstown, NY, and married a Sarah A., who was born in 1814.

7. Poss. Brower.
8. Poss. Weston.
9. Mary. Mary was born in 1847.
10. Catherine. Catherine was born in 1850.

4. Annatie. Annatie was born February 2, 1809, and baptized in 1809 at the Dutch Reformed Church of Caughnawaga. She married John Vosburg.

5. Aaron J. Aaron was born August 23, 1813, and baptized at the Dutch Reformed Church of Caughnawaga. He married Catherine Relyay who was born in NY in 1815. The Johnstown, NY, paper gathered the following information on John's son Aaron I. Putman. The newspaper published it in August 1901:

The writer of this article, when passing near the Baker Block, yesterday, was accosted by an aged stranger who wished to know if the stone structure across the street was the old Episcopal Church. When assured that such was the fact, the polite stranger remarked, "I attended Church there more than 70 years ago, but in some way it has changed so that I did not recognize the place. When informed that the Church he used to attend fronted on Church Street and was burned in 1836, things began to appear more familiar to the stranger, who proved to be Rev. Aaron I. Putman, a Baptist clergyman from Jasper Co., IN. He was born on his father's farm in Albany Bush, Montgomery Co., on August 25, 1813. There he took his birthday dinner August 25, 1901. He learned the wagon maker's trade in the shop of Hiram Austin in the Village of Johnstown, in 1832, and there he labored until 1835.

He was baptized by Rev. Abraham Van Horne at Caughnawaga, NY, where he was united in marriage by that minister to Catherine Relyea February 4, 1838. She was the eldest daughter of James and Deborah Relyea, who then resided about three miles easterly from the Village of Johnstown, NY. Mrs. Aaron I. Putman died in Newton Co., IN, July 26, 1898. And there her remains are buried.

When Aaron I. Putman was a boy, his associates in times of high tide used to descend the stairs beneath the old stone church in Johnstown and with long sticks poke Sir William Johnson's casket to see it float upon the water. There was no other casket to be seen within the vault. Aaron I. Putman never engaged in the pastime, which he regarded as a desecration of the tomb. He removed to Cleveland, OH, in 1838, and from there to Fort Wayne, IN, in May 1847. His blacksmith works at Fort Wayne, IN, was burned May 20, 1850, and no insurance.

He then turned his attention to farming in that locality until 1861, when he removed to Newton Co., IN, where he became quite an extensive farmer. He resided there until December 1898 when he removed to Jasper Co., IN, his present home. He was licensed to preach over thirty years ago and was ordained as a Baptist clergyman, October 8, 1884. He has officiated as pastor of various churches in Indiana. He has been pension agent, justice of the peace, and postmaster in Newton Co., IN, for many years. He was born a Whig and has since the dissolution of that party been a staunch Republican. He neither chews, smokes, or drinks whiskey and has no aches or pains. He now wears a badge bearing the title "One in a Million" representing total abstinence. He is a very intelligent gentleman and has a surprising memory. He writes readily without glasses and is a firm believer in future rewards and punishments. After a hearty handshake, a final good-bye, and a fervent "God Bless You," the aged and conscientious Indiana Minister vanished from sight.

He is now stopping with his relatives in this city and expects to return to his home in Indiana about the middle of the present month. . . . Rev. Aaron I. Putman's father was John V. Putman, a farmer, who lived and died in Albany Bush, 3 miles east of Johnstown. The former's grandfather, Victor A. Putman, was born and reared in Stone Arabia and there married a Ms. . . . [Schultz]. Later, he moved to Tribes Hill near where his remains were first buried on his farm. A few days since his grandson, Rev. Aaron I. Putman caused the remains to be removed to the old part of the Tribes Hill Cemetery where many of the Putmans are buried. The remains of Victor A. Putman were first buried in 1800 on the farm, but when they were removed a few days ago his principal bones were found intact except the loss of one of his teeth. The hinges of his original casket were also found and again re-interred with his bones . . .

6. Matthias Becker. Mathias was born in 1828 in New York State. Portrait and Biographical Album of St. Joseph County, Michigan, gives the following description of Matthias:

Matthias Becker Putman, stands among the foremost of the agriculturist of St. Joseph County who have been instrumental in building up its great farming interest. Matthias is a prominent citizen of Constantine Township, where he owns a large farm on section 36, and is extensively engaged in agriculture. He has one of the finest residences in the township, and his home is very attractive.

Mr. Putman is the son of a pioneer family that was well known here in the early times. Though he was but nine years of age when he accompanied his parents to their new home in the forest depths of Southern Michigan, he may well be denominated a pioneer himself.

Matthias has been a dweller in St. Joseph County and in the Constantine Township, as a boy and a man, for over fifty years, and in that time he has witnessed the wonderful changes that have been brought about by the energy and the indomitable perseverance of the early pioneers and their successors. For they have rendered this one of the richest and most prosperous farming regions in the country, with extensive commercial interest and flourishing towns and cities as well. It must be a pleasant thought to him that he has materially contributed to this prosperity.

Matthias was born in Johnstown, Montgomery County, New York, on 17 March, 1827. He was the seventh of eight children, four sons and four daughters, born to Peter F. and Maria (Becker) Putman. His parents were also natives of Montgomery County, and were born respectively in Johnstown and Florida Townships. They married and settled down in Montgomery County, and all of their children were born there as well.

In August of 1896, they broke up their old home, and with their family came to St. Joseph County as Mr. Putnam having visited here in Michigan in April and had purchased a tract of land in south-eastern Constantine Township, for which he paid $12.50 an acre.

Matthias was a lad of only nine years when he accompanied his parents to this state consequently most of his life has been spent here. He has been as much interested in the progress and growth of the commonwealth of Michigan as if he was a native and was to the manor born. He was reared on a farm, and in the pioneer influences that he obtained in his early life here, he grew to be a vigorous, self-helpful and capable young man. He adopted the calling to which he was reared, and in following agriculture has accumulated considerable wealth. He owns 300 acres of valuable land all in one body in Constantine Township. He has it under fine cultivation and it is supplied with substantial and commodious buildings for all purposes, and he has the most approved machinery for the lightening of labor.

Matthias Becker Putman and Miss Sarah A. Dickinson were united in marriage on 12 October, 1859, in Florence Township. Mrs. Putman is in many respects a superior woman, and she presides with her characteristic graciousness over her and her husband's commodious well-appointed home, dispensing its hospitalities with a free and a happy heart. She is warmly seconded in her efforts to entertain friends or strangers, by her husband and family.

Sarah A. Dickinson was born in Florence Township, St. Joseph County, on 11 March 1837. She was the eldest of five children three sons and two daughters, born to George and Sarah (Johnson) Dickerson, who were both natives of Yorkshire, England. Her father came to Michigan, and was a pioneer of White Pigeon. His wife came to this country in 1833, and they were married in Gilead, Branch County, Michigan, near the residence of Governor Luce. They began their married life in Florence Township, and continued it there until death did part them. George died 3 May, of 1861, and Sarah died 12 January of 1867. Mrs. Dickinson had been married before her marriage to George Dickinson. She was the widow of John Bowman, who died in England. She had one child by that marriage: daughter Mary, who died in 1868 at White Pigeon, the wife of John J. Davis.

By her marriage to Mr. Dickinson she had five children, Viz George, a farmer in Florence Township; Anna, wife of Charles Kellogg of Florence Township; Richard, in White pigeon Township; Charles, also in Florence Township, and Mrs. Putman.

Mr. and Mrs. Putman are the parents of six children, Viz: Anna, who lives at home; Maria, who died when about two and one half years old; Mary, Nellie, George, and John. Their daughter, Mary, was married at their residence to Frank F. Hotchin of Florence Township on 5 December, 1888, and there was a large gathering of friends to witness the impressive ceremony.

Mr. Putman is a man of clear head and sagacious judgment and possesses weight and influence in the affairs of this community, with which his interest have been bound up for so long. No one is more liberal or public-spirited than he is in encouraging the various schemes for the benefit of the township and the county. He is thoroughly respected for those characteristics that mark the true man and the honest citizen. He has been the School Director for many years, and has held some of the minor offices. In politics he casts his vote with the Democratic Party. Mrs. Putman is a consistent member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and has been for upward of thirty years.

He and his wife have made their home here for the remainder of their lives. Matthias died here in November of 1858, and Sarah died here several years prior that date.
